

WINE LIST

HOUSE RECOMMENDATIONS FOR THE SUMMER SEASON

Summer is with us and with the sunshine in mind we have selected some wines to match with the season.

Naturally enough, lighter dishes are featuring on our menus and likewise this selection is all about a lightness of touch both in the vineyard and cellar.

ROSÉ

125ml 175ml 250ml Bottle

CHARDONNAY 4.40 6.00 8.50 23.95

2016, Montevento, Italy

Lush, fruity and fine. Textbook light as a feather pink from northern Italy. Expect soft red fruit flavours and a deliciously dry finish.

MERLOT ROSÉ 5.25 7.25 10.50 30.00

2014, Eradus Estate, New Zealand

Crisp and fruity wine with lovely minerality and flavour expression - perfect to quaff in Yorkshire in the summer. The Eradus family winemaking philosophy centres on achieving balance and freshness. Eradus rose is a perfect example of this approach, offering creamy, ripe summer-pudding fruit balanced by bright acidity.

FIZZ

125ml 175ml 250ml Bottle

MOSCATO D'ASTI 4.50 5.95 8.50 25.00

2015, Fratelli Antonio e Raimondo, Piedmont, Italy

On the nose this wine displays the typical, intense aroma of the moscato grape. Hints of acacia flowers and honey combine harmoniously and complete the mouth. Off dry, fruity and refreshing.

WHITE

125ml 175ml 250ml Bottle

ROERO ARNEIS 4.50 5.95 8.50 25.00

2015, Cascina Ghercina, Piedmont, Italy

Known as the 'little rascal' of Piedmont, the troublesome Arneis grape combines delicate floral aromas with punchy pear and apricot flavours, with a flash of exotic spice. Notoriously difficult to grow, Arneis grape was rescued from the verge of extinction in the late 20th Century and has found a home in the rolling hills of Roero. Here it responds incredibly well to the region's unique light and sandy soils.

ALBARINO 5.25 7.25 10.50 30.00

2015, Pazo la Maza, DO Rias Baixas, Spain

A lively and refreshing Albariño made in its indigenous region - DO Rias Baixas - to accompany a large array of seafood and shell fish dishes! A refreshing, yet intense wine, combining delicate orchard fruits and citrus fragrances.

RED

125ml 175ml 250ml Bottle

OLD VINES

TEMPRANILLO RESERVA 4.50 5.95 8.50 25.00

2010/11, Bodegas Navarro Lopez, Valdepenas, Spain

This family-run estate in the ancient Valley of Stones ('Valdepeñas' in Spanish) is also one of the country's most modern wineries! Here, the hot, dry climate is perfect for their gnarled old vines Tempranillo to grow. Round and full, with soft bramble fruit and sweet spice, this wine has Rioja panache without the price tag.

CABERNET FRANC 5.25 7.25 10.50 30.00

2014/15, La Tunella, Colli Orientali, Italy

The dynamic La Tunella winery in the D.O.C. area of Colli Orientali del Friuli, was reborn and renamed in 1991: vineyards were replanted with international grape varieties and a brand new winery was introduced. Unique 'Ponca' marl soils lend weight and finesse to this ripe, juicy and herbaceous Cabernet Franc.

From the undisputed master of all things Malbec comes this off piste red. Malbec features heavily, but so too a touch of Cabernet and Shiraz. This is weird, and wonderful but works brilliantly with beef.

104. CHATEAU LEOVILLE BARTON, 2011 £99.95

A blend of plum and cherry compote and appetising spice. Silky and opulent, the palate is rich and intense, complemented by toasted oak - an impressive marriage of innate power and sensual charm.

87. POMMARD, 2014, DOMAINE CYROT-BUTHIAU, BURGUNDY £50.95

Its aromas are redolent of blackberry, bilberry, or gooseberry, cherry pit and ripe plum. Leather, chocolate and pepper on the palate.

105. REUNION SHIRAZ 2010/12, THE LANE, ADELAIDE HILLS, AUSTRALIA £60.95

The Lane's vineyards benefit from the relative cool climate of the Adelaide Hills. The vines are kept cool when temperatures drop substantially at night, resulting in well-balanced wine with fresh acidity.

106. CHATEAU MUSAR 2006, BEKAA VALLEY, LEBANON £65.95

Powerful earthy aromas as well as some dried apricot and cherry. On the palate this medium bodied wine reveals an abundance of rich flavours with notes of orange, mocha and nutmeg.

130. L'HOSPITALET DE GAZIN 2012, POMEROL, FRANCE £80.95

Opaque ruby in colour, this has a darkly full, pungently ripe red fruit nose and a full, dense, chewy palate which avoids over extraction effortlessly to offer a delicious concentration, freshness of 'attack' and purity to the finish. From the vineyards next to the fabled Chateau Petrus.

112. BAROLO "LA TARTUFAIA" 2011, GIULIA NEGRI, ITALY £80.95

A rich, intense and firm colour, this has immediate appeal. The nose is indeed classical with notes of red and black fruit, cherries and minerals.

PUDDING WINE

Half Bottle Bottle

020. MUSCAT DE BEAUMES DE VENISE 2009, DOMAINE COYEAUX, FRANCE £17.95

Refreshing and unctuous dessert wine, from Southern Rhône's picturesque village of Beaumes de Venise. Yves and Catherine Nativelle of Domaine de Coyeux lead the way with their production of Muscat in this Côtes de Rhône village. This outstanding Vin Doux Naturel exudes tangy, tropical and citrus flavours with delicate floral notes.

021. CHATEAU BRIATTE 2011, SAUTERNES, FRANCE £17.95

It's not all that easy to find a value for money Sauternes which delivers on balance. This is a very pretty wine, enticing on the nose with its blend of flowers, rich ripe fruit and citrus vitality. The palate offering luxuriant, silky, honeyed opulence but there is a persistent crisp acidity throughout to balance the palate and to avoid either wayward unfettered sweetness or weightiness - rather deft and nimble.

022. ELYSIUM BLACK MUSCAT 2015, ANDREW QUADY, USA £19.95

Rose petals on the nose, the palate is intense rich and velvety. In 1983, a nearby grower brought Andrew Quady some Black Muscat grapes that were previously destined for sacramental wine at a local church. When the church ceased operations, the grower was left with truckloads of ripe, unwanted Black Muscat. The grower heard through the grapevine that newcomer Quady had some success with Orange Muscat, so he knocked on Quady's door, and the rest is history.

023. PEDRO XIMENEZ SOLERA RESERVA NV, EMILIO LUSTAU, SPAIN £35.95

Luscious notes of dried figs, chocolate, caramel and coffee. Rich and full-bodied, this golden brown, viscous Pedro Ximénez offers abundant aromas and flavours of prunes, raisins, figs, roasted nuts, and exotic spices. Sweet, smooth and luscious on the palate, it's delicious when sipped or poured over vanilla ice cream.

PORT

107. FONSECA GUIMARAENS VINTAGE PORT 1998 £69.95

In certain years when there is no classic Fonseca Vintage Port, a Guimaraens Vintage Port may be made instead. When Guimaraens Vintage Ports were first released in the 1930's they were made in the same years as the classic Fonseca Vintage Ports but blended from slightly less powerful components, much like the second wines of the Bordeaux châteaux.

ARMAGNAC

France's other brandy, and one of the oldest spirits in the world, Armagnac is named after the region where it's produced in Gascony, South West France. Often compared with Cognac, its more internationally recognised and brand dominated competitor yet Armagnac has a character distinctly its own. Very much the product of small artisanal growers and éleveurs, complex distillation and long maturation. Typically considered more intensely flavoured and aromatic, but also more rustic, it's the fiery soul of the Armagnac people captured in the distillers' art - a warm caramel to Cognac's milder vanilla.

The very best have an extraordinary capacity to age over long decades and even centuries, all the while gaining layer upon layer of complexity and a mellow smoothness which envelops the deep nutty, autumn fruit, baked apple and spice which are at the heart of Armagnac's distinctive flavour.

BARON DE SIGOGNAC

The renowned Guasch family concentrate their production around the Ungi Blanc and Baco grape varieties grown exclusively in the best area of Armagnac known as Bas Armagnac. Possessors of the greatest collection of fine and rare vintages and characterised by floral, wood and spice their vintage Armagnacs are distinguished by a generous subtlety and depth of aroma.

BARON DE LUSTRAC & CLOS MARTIN

Baron de Lustrac's range of fine old Armagnacs are sourced from estates in the Tenereze & Mas Armagnac. Character and tradition are the bywords of this small traditional producer and they have a proud heritage of benchmark Armagnacs rich in nutty, oaky spice with more than a hint of rancio. They also make some Armagnacs under the Clos Martin name.
